LEAGUE OF VETERANS

ORGANIZATION FORMED WITH SEVENTY-TWO MEMBERS.

Ex-Union Soldiers and Sailors Banded Together as Reserve Political Force.

Enthusiasm of the most pronounced type marked the completion of the organization ast evening at Maccabee Hall, 9th street between E and F streets, of Washington Council, No. 1, of the Soldiers and Sailors' Rights League. A large number of veterans were in attendance and several ringing speeches were made. Washington Council organized with seventy-two mem-Trains leave Pennsylvania avenue and bers, the officers elected being as follows: Col. J. H. Dewees, president; Michael J. ergeant-at-arms. The general idea of the league is to band together the ex-Union soldler element of the United States into a political reserve

Purpose of the League.

"Is it the intention of the Soldiers and the Grand Army of the Republic into a political organization and supplant it by the league?

"Is the league to be in the interests of the republican party and under its exclusive central, as was the organization of but in "My Antoinette" it is said the story the Stars and Stripes, or is it non-partisan?

non-partisan, and is under the control of no man, no clique, party or sect, and will be so maintained to the end, for in this lies our greatest strength, our faith in princes who want to use us having weakened from past experience.

Not a Political Body.

"Our intention is not to affiliate with any party, to hold no convention, to have no candidates in the field, to elect no delegates, but simply to organize in such a manner as to be prepared for any emergency that may arise in future, or correct any abuses that may exist at present, affecting our interests as comrades. In other words, to devise means for adding strength to our cause, to command attention instead of indifference, to know that when we ask bread from Congress we will not be given a stone, or, asking a fish, to receive a serpent, with the sting of which we are perfectly familiar, by reason of personal contact hereto-fore. We are no more a political body than is a labor union.

"We have determined to try the experiment of uniting together as a solid body of voters, as well as brothers, in a common ause, believing that by such means we can command the attention of the lawmaking power of the government to better advanage in the way of furthering our lawful nterests than by any other means at our ommand at present.

"This movement is organized with a view constitute simply a reserve army, organized for the sole purpose of mutual pro-tection against raids, incursions, unfair treatment, unjust discrimination, ess charges of inefficiency regarding age, rights of pensioners, preference in accordince with section 1754 of the Revised Statates, and other matters of minor importance along these lines."

Col. Smolinski's Address.

RETURN TO OLD SYSTEM. Washington Heights Citizens Oppose

Change in Police Methods.

The East Washington Heights Citizens' Association held a special meeting last night in its hall near Good Hope. In addition to other business transacted, a resolution was adopted requesting the District the police force in Anacostia to resume the old system of police work in vogue in that section prior to the 1st of the present month, when the new plan, uniform throughout the District, went into effect. It was explained that conditions in the suburban places around Anacostia are so much different from those existing in the densely populated portions of the District as to render the old system used at the Ana-costia station far preferable to the new one. It was also impressed upon the Com-missioners that the request made of them affects only the members of the Anacostic

AMUSEMENTS.

PERCY HASWELL.-Percy Haswell will be seen next week at the Columbia Theater under more notable conditions than she has ever yet enjoyed in her entire career. Her great success during the past two years in this city and Baltimore at the head of her stock company induced II. B. Harris, who exploited Amelia Bingoam, to make an arrangement with Miss Haswell to present her throughout the country in the same exalted manner as is Maude Adams, Julia Marlowe, Viola Allen and other favorite feminine stars.

Mr. Harris has secured for Miss Haswell's use one of the greatest romantic comedy successes New York has ever known, "A Royal Family," which ran for nearly two years at the Lyceum Theater in the metropolis. Miss Haswell is said to be surrounded with a production in keeping with the royal title of the play, and supported by a company of unusual dramatic importance, including such well-known names as Boyd Putnam, Maud Granger, Harry Burkhardt, Nancy Padget, Frank Roberts, Walter Crosby, Charles D. Pitt, Harris Forbes, Brayton Byron, James McDonald, Jeanette Northern, Robert C. Turner and others. The sale of seats commences tomorrow morning.

"MY ANTOINETTE." - There are so many combinations in Alfred Aaron's and George H. Murray's new musical comedy, "My Antoinette," which will be produced at the National Theater next week, that it is impossible in a short space to give a de scription of them all. First comes the order. In an address bearing on the op-fects of the organization, Gen. Samuel R. Strattan stated that the following ques-tions cover about the general scope of the fine music, then the cast, which includes Josephine than the cast, which includes Josephine Hall, Grace Belmont, Nellie Beaumont, Beatrice Darlington, Bertha Darling, Rich-ard Goodall, Joseph Dailey, George Yeolibretto, written by Geo. Totten Smith; then man, Eugene Wiene and Harry Short. Next in order are the magnificently costumed young women who compose the chorus, and lastly the beautiful scenery. The lat-Sailors' Rights League to endeavor to turn | ter includes a mountainous scene in Switzerland, a drawing room in an aristocratic mansion in London, and what is best of all, perhaps, an exact reproduction of "Behind the Scenes." with everything and everybody as natural as life. There is, as a rule, little is well sustained throughout the entire two acts. Special attention has been paid to the accessories. The costumes are all new, and the chorus ladies are among the pick of Broadway.

THE PIKE THEATER COMPANY .- At the Lafayette Square Opera House next week the Pike Theater Company will play special engagement of one week, presenting Hall Caine's successful play. "The Christian." The Pike players in their home city, Cincinnati, where for the past six years they have appeared in long engagements, producing the New York successes have a standing equal to that of the highpriced combination houses. They have played each season a twelve weeks' engagement in Detroit and a similar one in Minneapolis and St. Paul. The company brings with it a new scenic equipment for "The Christian." every setting used in the production being absolutely new. More than fifty people will be in the larger stage pictures. In the company are Byron Douglas, George Farren, Thurlow Bergen, John B. Maher, Barry O'Neil, William A. Hackett, Mary Hall, Emelie Melville, Grace Dacsell, Sara Moore and others

"ONLY A SHOP GIRL,"-According to the statements given out by the New York Booking Syndicate, Lottie Williams Salter in her new play, "Only a Shop Girl," is one of the most financially substantial and artistic successes of the present season A succession of large audiences has greeted the play since its initial production. It is staged by Charles E. Blaney, with original music by M. B. Streeter. The story of a poor shop girl who has to fight the world alone, whose life is in jeopardy, placed so by a jealous rival, but who finally surmounts all her difficulties and marries the man she loves. In the third act, which shows the interior of Cooper, Macy & Co.'s department store, the shop girl is rescued from being crushed to death by the elevator. This bill is the "card" at the Academy next week, with the usual Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday matinees.

the three Livingstons, Burton and Brooks, James Thornton and Orth and Fern. Ten Ichi is magician to the Mikado of Japan, touring this country under royal permission. His troupe of necromancers includes a picturesque little Japanese girl, Ten Kat-su. Sager Midgley and Gertle Carlisle are very popular, and will present an entirely offering that gives Mr. Midgley his best opportunity as an eccentric rustic tinctly novel European specialty, that of making pictures with rags. Florence Bindley has earned the title of "the versatile artist." The three Livingstons, in evening costume, give a remarkable acrobatic performance. Burton and Brooks are the wellknown parady singers, best known by their song, "More Work for the Undertaker." Their new act is entitled "A Quiet Evening at the Club." James Thornton is a singer and satirist with original compositions. Orth and Fern are musical comedians who have a comic plano specialty.

KERNAN'S LYCEUM THEATER.-Two bright and breezy burlesques will be pre-sented in a very elaborate and attractive manner at the Lyceum Theater next week. The first part, or opening burlesque, is a musical melange, entitled "The Joneses at the Merry Maidens Ball," and is said o surpass anything ever seen in burlesque The closing burietta is a lively skit on life at a summer resort, and it is called "The Merry Maidens at the Beach." The scenery, costumes and electrical effects in these two burlesques are very Manager Kernan announces that tomorrow night after the regular performance Jone Grant of this city and Frank Herrick, the instructor of the New York Athletic Club, will wrestle best two out of three falls in one hour's bout. The admission for this contest will be 10 cents, 25 cents, 50 cents and 75 cents.

SHOOTING THE CHUTES .- Genuine musical comedy, which has proven very scarce in popular price theaters during the past few seasons, with all its well-known surroundings of pretty girls, jingling songs eccentric character sketches, novel dance numbers and mirth-provoking situations, will be the attraction at the Empire Fami ly Theater next week in that cleverly vised farce, "Shooting the Chutes." M ray & Mack's company, numbering thirty people, is presenting the comedy this season, as it did the two previous ones, and is meeting with the same great success. This comedy conceit has enjoyed a most flatter ing run, its career throughout the country having been marked by a succession of record-breaking audiences everywhere. The esenting company is strong, and among a host of favorites includes the well-known operatic duo. Little and Pritzkow, who are warm favorites in this city. Ward Caulfield, the clever Irish comedian, is also of the company, together with Al and Josie Lawrence, Marty Moore and a chorus of twenty pretty girls.

"HALLS OF THE ANCIENTS."-Messrs. Franklin W. Smith and S. Walter Wood-ward, for purposes auxiliary to those entering into the establishment of the Halls of the Ancients, but especially to relieve Mr. Smith at his advanced age from administrative details of the halls and the financial burden hitherto sustained by him, have arranged with the Armat Motion Picture Company to take direction of all public en-tertainments in the halls, such as motion pictures, lectures, musical performances, church and society entertainments, etc., under agreement that said company only refined and high-class exhibitions of an educational character consist ent with the aims for which the halls were created. The Armat company has taken charge and will open today in the audito-rium of the halls with the motion pictures of the coronation of King Edward and other appropriate films. Admission has been reduced to 25 cents, which will entitle patrons to view the Halls of the An-cients, to which an admission of 50 cents has heretofore been charged. An expositor will

LOSES LIFE IN WATER.

Ralph Davis, Aged Fourteen, Drowned in the Eastern Branch.

The first fatal accident of the present gunning season occurred about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when Raiph Davis, the fourteen-year-old son of George Davis of Twining City, was drowned from a skiff while shooting birds in the Eastern branch, at a point near the Pennsylvania avenue bridge. The body was recovered about two hours later and was carried to Bailey's boat house, where it was viewed by the coroner, who, after learning the facts, issued a certificate of accidental death. About noon yesterday the unfortunate boy, acompanied by Clarence Thorn, a young companion, secured a skiff and rowed over on the flats near the bridge to shoot reed birds. A few minutes after 2 o'clock the boat upset and the boys received a ducking. The boat was soon righted, however, and the young hunters resumed their sport. A little while later the Thorn boy, who was cold from the wetting he re-ceived when the boat upset, decided to go ashore, which he did. After Thorn had reached shore he heard a shot, and on turning around he saw his companion struggling in the water. He ran to a boat house nearby conducted by Harry Bailey and informed him of the accident to Davis. Mr. Bailey secured a boat and quickly rowed to the scene, where he found the upturned skiff, but no trace of Davis. He returned to shore and notified Policeman C. F. Osterman, who returned to the flats Bailey. Together they instituted a thorough search, and after a short time the body was found below the surface of the water entangled in some thick weeds. Considerable difficulty was experienced in releasing the body of the unfortunate lad, and when it was finally brought to the surface weeds were wrapped around the arms

The tody was removed to Mr. Bailey's boat house, where it was later seen by Coroner Nevitt, who, as stated, issued a certificate of death by drowning. The unfortunate boy was well liked by all who knew him and was very popular in the neighborhood of his home. A broken patrol box, known officially as No. 12 in the Anacostia district, played its part to the inconvenience of officers and others when it was most needed yesterday following the description. following the drowning. When Officer John Stewart, on duty at Twining City, was in-formed of the accident, he endeavored to communicate with the police station at Anacostia for the purpose of summoning as-sistance. After trying vainly to put in operation a box that had been out of order for a number of hours, it is said, he was compelled to send a messenger boy on a bicycle to communicate the facts in the case and ask that men in boats be sent to the scene. Later other messengers had to be employed in the same way. While it is not contended that the boy's life could have been saved had the box been in order, much delay would have been prevented and the authorities informed of the facts much earlier than was the case.

GONZAGA COLLEGE OPENS.

Names of Scholarship Winners Announced-Organization of Classes. The scholastic year of 1902-3 of Gonzaga College was inaugurated yesterday, when the portals of that venerable institution were opened to a large number of students. Almost all of the morning was consumed in the interchange of greetings. The military education of the youth, which has been a conspicuous feature of the curriculum in the past, will be looked after again this year, Rev. Father Hann being directed to take charge of that department.

Studies will begin in earnest next Monlay, when solemn high mass of the Holy Ghosts will be said at St. Aloysius Church at 9 o'clock, after which the scholars will march to the college and begin the year's work. Sessions will be held each day with the exception of Thursday and Sunday, which will be days of rest. Each morning, commencing at 8:20 o'clock, mass will be said at the church. The sessions begin at 9 o'clock and last until 2:30, with thre quarters of an hour for lunch, beginning at 12:45. About 150 students were present yesterday, but it is thought the attendance will run considerably over two hundred by the regular opening next week.

The organization of Gonzaga College dates back to 1821, when the institution occupied a site near 9th and F streets, near the eld

St. Patrick's Church, and was known as the "Washington Seminary." A considerable portion of the ground in the vicinity belonged to the institution, including the site now occupied by Masonic Temple. In 1871 it was moved to the present site, on the north side of I street between North Capitol and 1st streets northwest.

Frank Mack Gets Long Term on District Farm.

Frank Mack, a young colored man, was convicted in the Police Court this morning on a charge of carrying a razor with the intention of making unlawful use of it and was sentenced by Judge Bundy to serve one year, lacking a day, on the farm in default of a fine of $150, which was imposed. Mack had some words with Edith Smith. at her home near the corner of 3d and B streets southwest about 6 o'clock street and Maryland avenue, where she boarded a street car. Mack followed and got on the same car and there renewed the trouble, and not being able to settle the matter with words, pulled a razor blade from his pocket and started to make use of it. Detective Cornwell, who was a pasand after relieving Mack of the weapon placed him under arrest, sending him to the fourth precinct police station, he spent the night awaiting trial in the Police Court this morning. Mack asked Judge Bundy to extend the mercy of the court to him, but his honor failed to see why he should exercise clemency and directed that he be punished to the full extent of the law.

house during the coming term. The new school house has not yet been started, and the crowded condition of the old building makes it necessary to hold the primary classes in an annex, for which purpose the Buscher house will be used.

GUTICURA REMEDIES

Complete Treatment for Every Humour

THE SET

Consisting of Cuticura Soap, to cleanse the skin, Cuticura Ointment, to heal the skin, and Cuticura Resolvent Pills, to cool the blood, is often sufficient to cure the most torturing, disfiguring skin, scalp and blood humors, rashes, itchings and irritations, with loss of hair, when the best physiclans and all other remedies fail.

Millions use Cuticura Scap, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, for preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales and dandruff and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening and soothing red, 3d and B streets southwest about 0 o clock yesterday afternoon and the woman left her house and went to the corner of  $4\frac{1}{2}$  and chafings, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery.

Millions of women use Cuticura Soap in the form of baths for annoying irritations, inflammations and chafings, or too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes for ulcerative weaknesses, senger on the car, interfered at this point and for many sanative, antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, especially mothers. Cuticura Soap combines delicate emollient properties derived from Cuticura, the great skin cure, with the purest of cleansing ingredients and the most refreshing of flower odors. No amount of persuasion can induce those who have once used it to use any other, especially for preserving and purifying the skin, scalp and hair of infants and children.
